

GREATER NC PRO-AM PRESS CONFERENCE TIPOFF

"The Rucker of the South" 2010 season featuring professional celebrities, college All-Stars and top-rated High School athletes continues this summer in Durham. The S.J.G. Greater NC Pro-Am Summer Basketball League. in its third year launches July 1st.. Jerry Stackhouse is the celebrity host for this summer and North Carolina Central University will be the host venue again this season. The S.J.G. Greater NC Pro-AM mixes seasoned professional players with show-stopping rookies. The league is a premier basketball showcase that combines professional players, local ew comer college superstars and top high school basketball talent all on the same teams and all under one roof. More importantly, this venue will again provide a wonderful entertaining environment for the local community as well as a showcase for our partner organizations like: Bridge 2 Sports, Communities In Schools of Durham, Green Starts With Me, International Dementia Research Foundation, American Diabetes Association and The Triple Threat Foundation.

You are invited to the TIPOFF press conference to be held at:

Tobacco Road Sports Café (Next to DPAC)

280 South Mangum Street #100
Durham, NC 27701 Durham, NC 27701
(919) 937-9909
Date: Tuesday, June 22nd
Time: 2 pm

Jerry Stackhouse and others players will be present along with NC PRO-AM staff, sponsors and community leaders. In addition, information regarding media participation during the league will be communicated during the press conference. Please RSVP to Erroll Reese, Media Relations by Monday June 21st .

919-697-1149 cell or erroll@ncproam.com

Will Attend _____
Number of People _____